Who are we...

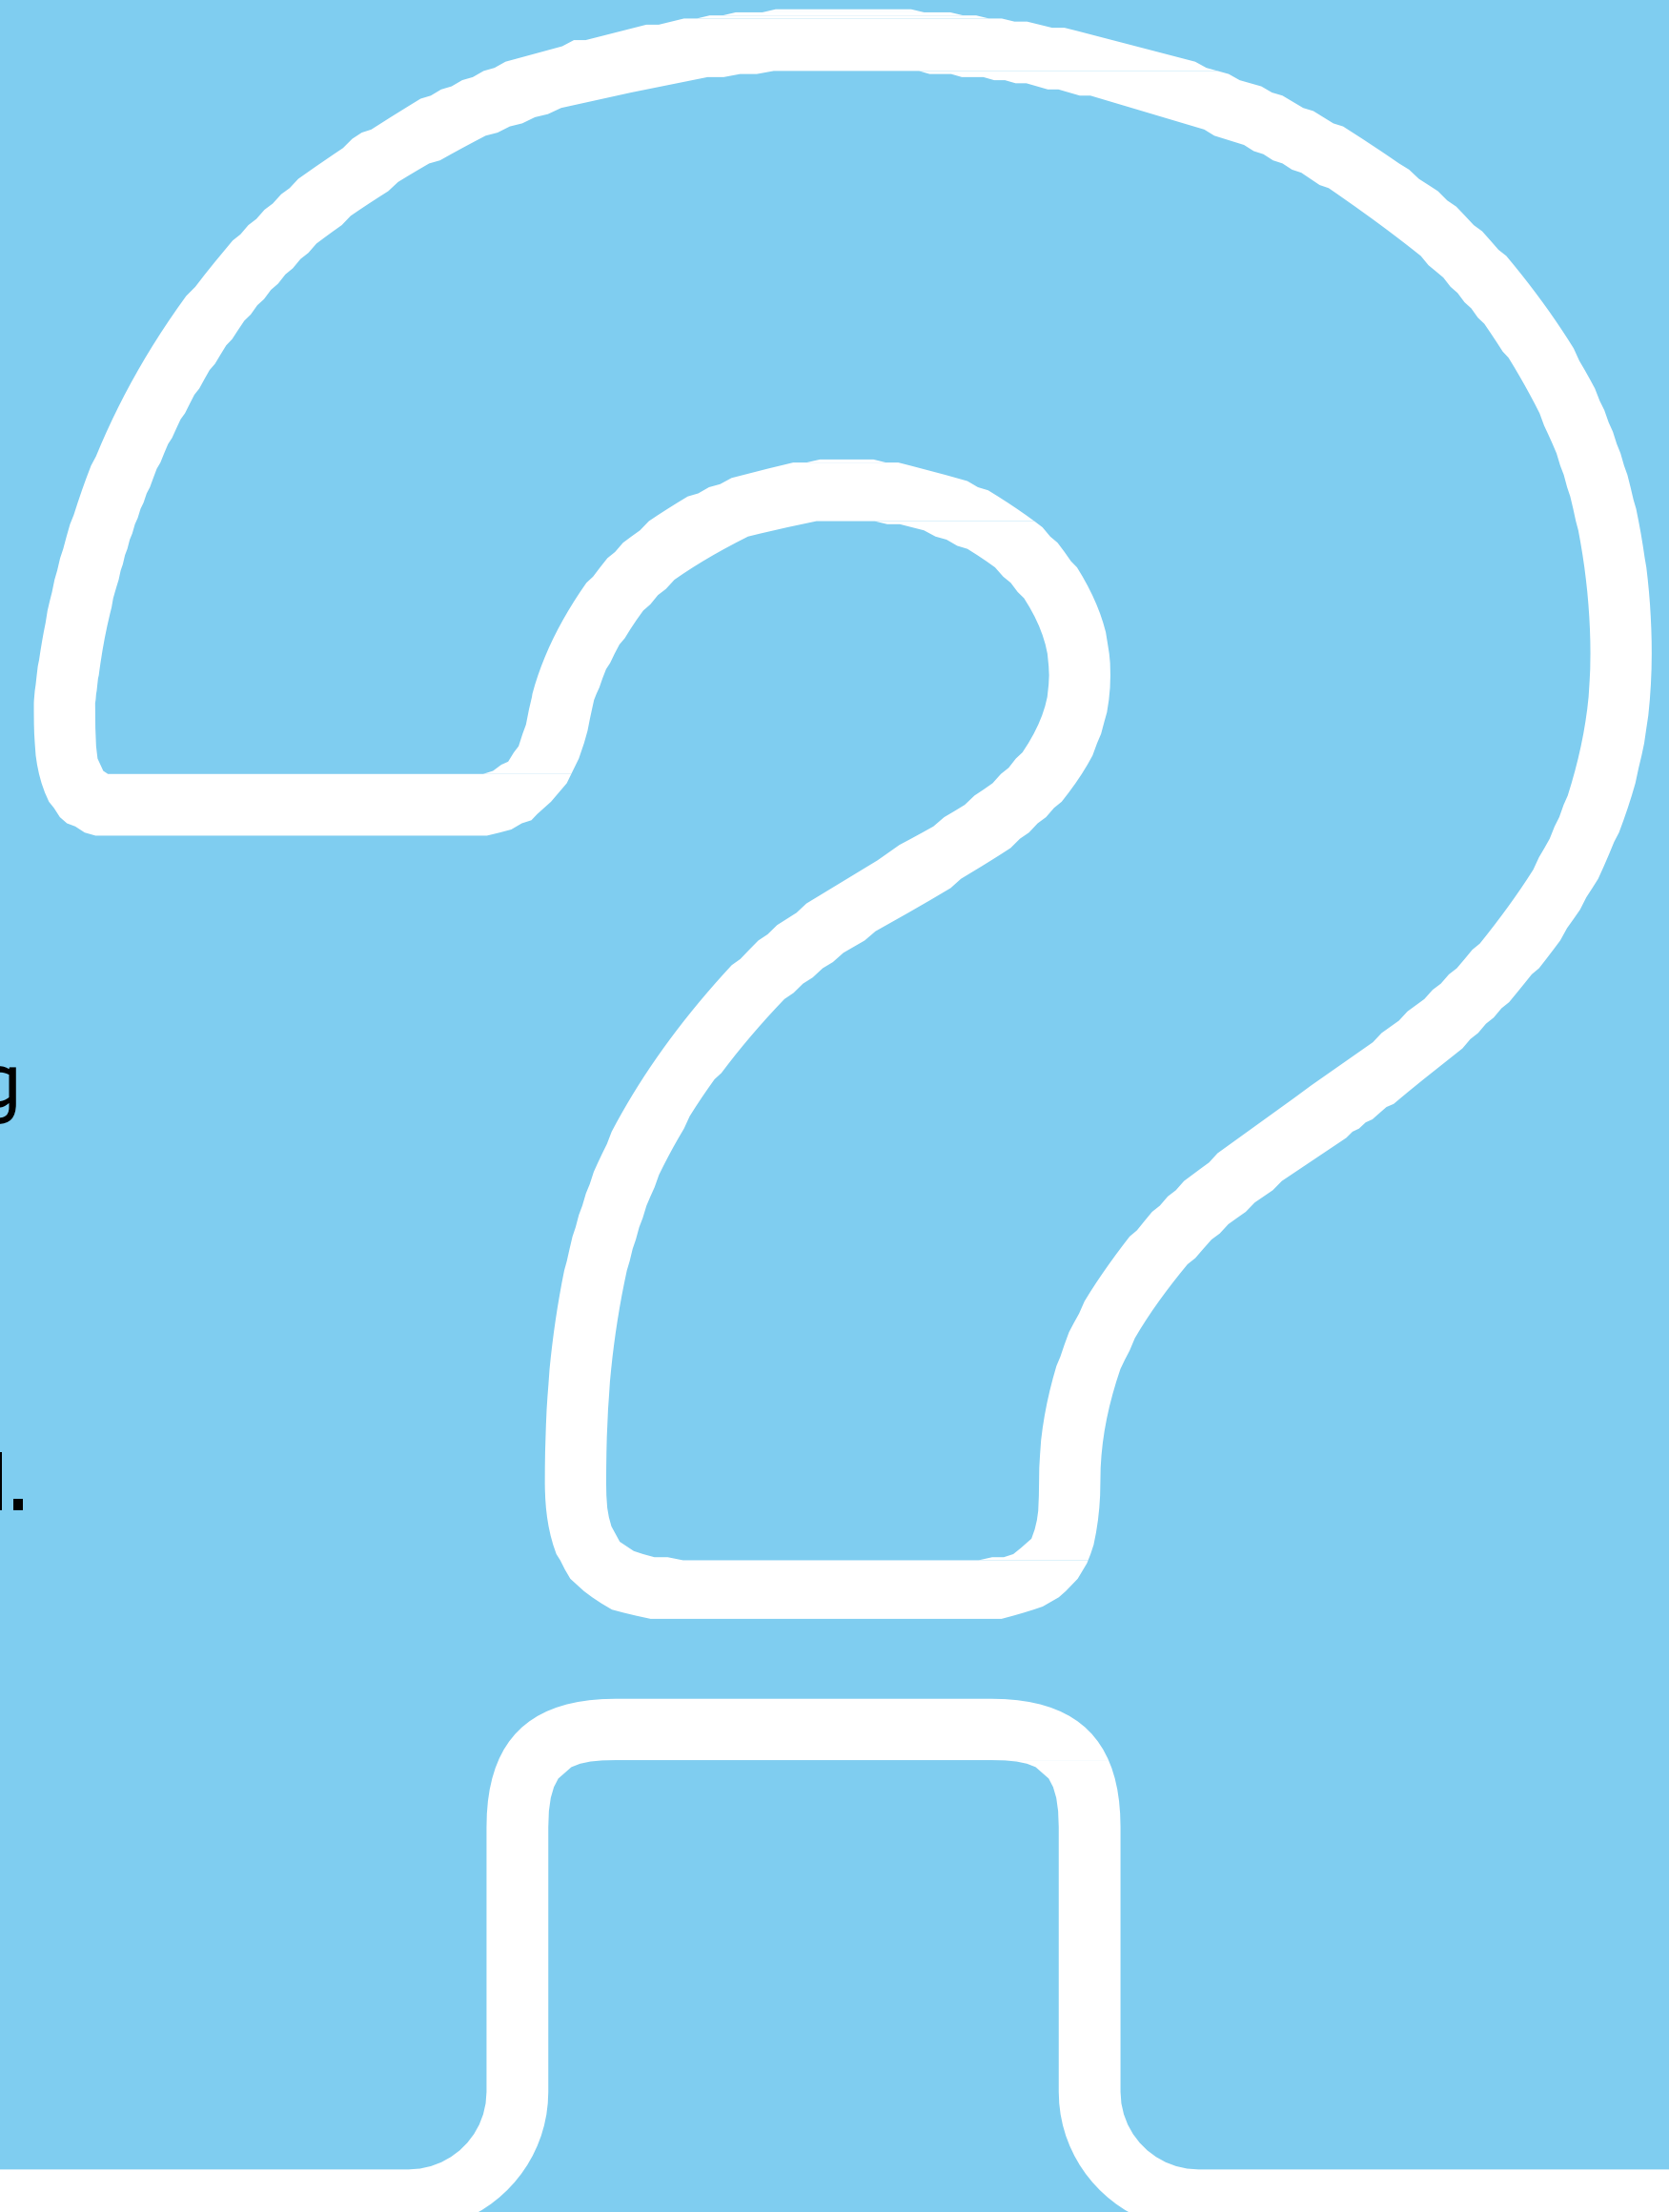

We are Project Management Global – we engage and educate aspiring, ascending and accomplished project managers worldwide through an all-inclusive media that builds professional capacity and skills as well as creating new opportunities for personal growth and prosperity.

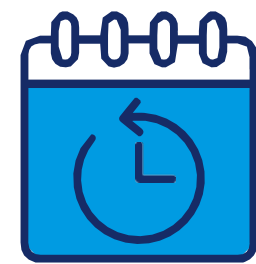

Our aim is to influence positive progression in project management by sharing best practice with globally diverse individuals and businesses, building capacity and developing individual and collective skills at every level.

That is why we have created a central resource that supports and shapes peoples' approaches to project management challenges and solutions.

We operate from our offices in the UK serving clients located around the world: the UK, Europe, the US, Asia and the Middle East.

PROJECT PROFESSIONALS
IN OUR GLOBAL CONTACT LIST

Welcome to the latest issue of Project Management Global - our bumper guide to everything project management.

We are so proud to announce that Project Management Global has officially become part of Business Daily Group's growing family of successful media platforms.

For us, Project Management Global represents more than a publication. It is a platform for professionals to access the insights, lessons and stories that elevate careers and transform organisations.

Please read more from our message to you from David McLoughlin, Chairman of Business Daily Group.

We're also launching Career Compass - a tool designed to help you navigate the project management world, and develop your career further.

As always, we also have a great range of Project News from across the world, 2,200+ global PM roles, advice, courses and resources for you - providing you with a comprehensive resource from the world of Project Management.

Expert Insight

"We want every subscriber to see Project Management Global not simply as a newsletter, but as a trusted partner in their professional journey. A resource they turn to for clarity, inspiration and a sense of belonging in a global network of peers."

David McLoughlin
Chairman,
Business Daily Group

In just over a year, Project Management Global has established itself as one of the fastest-growing professional titles in the sector, amassing a subscriber base of more than 150,000.

This extraordinary trajectory reflects both the appetite for trusted insight in project management and the strength of the platform we are building together. With continued investment,
